

Cheyenne Reformation Conference

An annual conference dedicated to advancing the truths of the Protestant Reformation, presenting the greatness of the gospel of Jesus Christ and a reawakening to the holiness of God.

Save the Date

The 2011 meeting of the Cheyenne Reformation Conference will be held October 14-15, 2011. Our speaker will be Dr. Dennis E. Johnson, Professor of Practical Theology at Westminster Seminary California. The topic of study will be "Meeting Jesus on Every Page: How to Read the Bible from the Standpoint of the Centrality of Christ."

- Audio Cds of the sessions will be available. See sign up sheet at the registration table.

- Conference hosts are available. Let us know how we can be of help.

- A list of local restaurants is available at the registration table in the narthex.

Standing Firm in an Age of Spiritual Crisis

Welcome...

We warmly welcome you to the first meeting of the Cheyenne Reformation Conference. We live in a time when the Church, Biblical truths and Christians are increasingly under attack. Churches are tempted to trivialize the faith and proclaim a therapeutic and moralistic message. We trust that this conference will help you identify secular beliefs influencing the Church and ways to resolve the crisis... to the Glory of God Almighty.

Friday, October 1 Session #1

Evangelical churches are in a crisis. There is no consensus on Scripture, God, humanity, Christ, sin, salvation, church, or last things. Indeed, the very definition of the word evangelical is in grave doubt. Some of the challenges facing evangelicals and ways to resolve the crisis will be discussed.

• Refreshments available downstairs in the dining room after the session.

Dr. R. Scott Clark

Professor of Church History and Historical Theology - Westminster Seminary, California

Dr. Clark has taught at Westminster Seminary California since 1997. During that time, he also served as Academic Dean (1997-2000), and taught at Wheaton College, Reformed Theological Seminary at Jackson and Concordia University at Irvine. He has authored several books and hosts the Heidelblog and the Office Hours Broadcast. He has been a minister in the Reformed Church in the United States and is presently a minister in the United Reformed Church in North America. He has served congregations in Missouri and California. Presently, he is Associate Pastor of Oceanside United Reformed Church where he preaches and teaches regularly.

Session #2

The Joy of Being Reformed

Because Reformed worship, theology, piety, and practice are so different from the prevailing American approaches, Reformed churches have often been tempted to try to look like everyone else. That is a mistake. There are good reasons to be different and this session will look at five of them

Speaking about the Church, Paul says...

“For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.”

1 Corinthians 3:11

Session #3

The Pattern of Being Reformed

It is widely held today that anyone who believes in predestination is “Reformed” and that there are many definitions of the word “Reformed.” In contrast, Dr. Clark will make the case that the Reformed faith is Biblical. It entails much more than just the doctrine of predestination; it includes a theology, piety, and practice.

Recovering the Reformed Confession: Our

Theology, Piety, and Practice

Author: Clark, R. Scott

Much of what passes as Reformed among our churches is not. As a class of churches that professes allegiance to Reformed theology, practice, and piety, we have drifted from our moorings. This book is written to facilitate change, specifically reformation according to God’s Word as summarized in the Reformed confessions.
